'And the people asked him (John the Baptist), saying, What shall we do then?

He answered and said unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.'
(Luke 3:10-14).

When the Lord created our world, He pronounced it to be 'very good.' It was a pristine paradise, created for the love of His life. He never expected us to behave like children at a playground, living only for our own selfish pleasures. He expected better things from us.

Our time here is only a drop in the ocean, compared with the eternity that will follow it. Do we spend our time here like children, with no consideration for the future?

The Lord Jesus said, 'For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?' (Matthew 16:26).

We do need to prepare for the eternity which will follow this life, because it's waiting for every one of us when we die, prepared or unprepared.

'For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.'
(John 3:16).

The only hope we have for a life beyond this one is to 'believe in Him,' and we will not perish, but have everlasting life.
