

So much more than a man

Capo 1

Words and music by Kevin Lee

He was more than a man-so much more than a man,
When He fed five thousand, with a few loaves and fishes,
And after they took up twelve baskets of pieces,
He was more so much more than a man,
So much more, oh much more than a man.

He turned water to wine, at the Wedding feast,
And those who were bound by the devil, He released,
When He spoke to the storm, its raging ceased,
He was more so much more than a man,
So much more, oh much more than a man.

Never man spake like this man,
No man walked on the lake before this man,
The Word of God came from this man,
He was more, so much more, than a man.

He gave sight to the blind, and the deaf could hear,

The cripples walked, and the lepers were healed,

When the power of Almighty God was revealed,

He was more so much more than a man,

So much more, oh much more, than a man.

Never man spake like this man,

No man walked on the lake before this man,

The Word of God came from this man,

He was more, so much more, than a man,

So much more, oh much more, than a man.
