

You don't know what tomorrow may hold (DS)

Words and music by Kevin Lee

C D7 G Em C D G

You don't know what tomorrow may hold, you don't know what will be.

C D7 G D C G

But the One who feeds the sparrows, will care for you and me.

C D7 G Em C D G

Give, and men will give to you, a greater measure still.

C D7 G D C G

A measure overflowing, will be poured out if you will.
