(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Billy...Chin...Chin...!"

Sec. (Lead Billy Chin Chin on).

Jud. "Mr Chin Chin...we're here today, to talk about your Theology..."

Bil. "I only stated plainly what the Bible promises!"

Jud. "Yes, we'll come to that...but you didn't let me finish...as I was stating...We're here to talk about your Theology, Mr Chin Chin...or the lack of it..." (Looking over his clipboard notes). "I have several public quotes here from you...and we may even play a few video clips to prove some points..."

Bil. "I only quoted the Word of God...so if I'm wrong, then God's wrong..."

Jud. "Mr Chin Chin...you will speak when spoken to...Now, in our first quote, which we will show on video if need be...You suggested...if a person wanted a Condominium and they paid a high enough faith seed...then someone would stop them as they were walking along a street...and hand them the keys to their Condo..."

Bil. "Ah..." (Fidgety). "I may have said that...but I spoke so often...who can remember everything they say, anyway?"

Jud. "I can...because I never say anything I don't want to remember...and yes, you definitely said that...and do you know how many people were convinced by what you said...and sowed a 'faith seed'...to get the keys to their Condo...Mr Chin Chin?"

Bil. "No?"

Jud. "Too many...because they believed you were a man of God...and they believed you were telling the truth...Tell me, Mr Chin Chin...Did you really believe that would happen?"

Bil. "Um...it could..."

Jud. "Anything could happen...but did you really believe it would?"

Bil. "Yes...it could..."

Jud. "No, Mr Chin Chin...you did not believe it would happen at all...you were only after their money...and you were lying to them..."

Bil. "A lot of other people said similar things!...Jocelyn Mice...Hennet Hopeland...I could name names..."

Jud. "Yes, there were quite a den of thieves in your time...conning people out of their money...in the Name of God...just like you were...and we know everything about everything...so there is nothing hidden which cannot be revealed here..."

Bil. "I was working for God...we travelled all over the world together...we had great Meetings...with huge crowds...there were great healing campaigns!"

Jud. "Mr Chin Chin...God wasn't among the crowds...they were desperate people coming to you for help...and all you did was put on a Show...to fleece them!"

Bil. "There were great miracles...miracles after miracles..."

Jud. "That's what you said Mr Chin Chin...but the facts were very different...There was no such thing...If God called you to your Ministry...He would have confirmed His Word for you...with signs following...which He did not...because He did not call you...you just went on your own...without Him..."

Bil. "Me and God...we travelled together, all over the world..."

Jud. "Really?...Well, when I was researching your case, I asked God about that...and He said He never knew you?"

Bil. "Never knew me?...of course He knew me!"

Jud. "Mr Chin Chin...I wouldn't call God a liar if I was you..."

Bil. "Well...No...I suppose there were a lot of Billy Chin Chin's in the world...anyone can get people mixed up, you know?"

Jud. "That's the strange thing...while I was researching, I found out you were the only person in the entire world named Billy Chin Chin..."

Bil. "The only one?"

Jud. "Yes, the one-and-only!"

Bil. "I wish I had known about that...That would have made great advertising..." (Holding his arms out wide). "The one-and-only-Billy-Chin-Chin...and I wouldn't have been lying..."

Jud. "For a change...I think we're done here...Security please...Take Mr Chin Chin away..."

Sec. (Take him, and begin to lead him off).

Bil. "Am I going to my reward now?"

Jud. "Yes, you are Mr Chin Chin...you most certainly are...Goodbye..."

Bil. "Good!...Goodbye!...Come on guys...Lead on..."

(They walk off).

Nar. "Too many people speak for God...without God...especially when they're lying ...Greed motivates people to say things...which have a hint of truth...just enough...to make them sound convincing...so that they can win the confidence of the needy...who are grasping at straws...and lead them to the slaughter...As Revelation 21:8 warns us... 'all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death' ...All liars will be destroyed there...the unholy ones...and the supposedly holy ones."

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Kermit...Hopeless!"

Sec. (Lead Kermit Hopeless on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mr Hopeless..."

Ker. (Standing with his finger pointed up). "I never sit...I stand before the devil and defy him...I stand on the word of God!...and I stand..."

Jud. "Just take your seat...and keep your mouth closed please..."

Ker. "Listen to me Sonny...Me and God partnered together in everything...absolutely everything...Where God went...I went...and when I spoke..."

Jud. "Did that include buying Private Jets together?...I mean you bought...what was it?" (Looking through the pages on his clipboard). "One...Two...Three...Four...How many Jets did you and God need?"

Ker. "I was God's man on the earth...I had to be able to go wherever He sent me...A...S...A...P...and say whatever He told me to say...and for that kind of commitment you can't use a pushbike...you need power...you need speed...only a fast Jet delivers the goods!"

Jud. "Well...I talked to God while I was researching your case...and He said He's never owned a Jet...not a single one...Explain that to me if you will, please?"

Ker. "I went ahead and bought them for us...for me and God...I did it for Him really...to save Him the bother...because He's got all those other things to attend to..."

Jud. "And He said He's never been in a Private Jet?"

Ker. "He didn't need to...He said 'Go'...and I would 'Go'...he knew He could rely on me anytime...I mean...we were a partnership...In my home...in my Church...wherever I went...it was Me and God...and the whole world knew that!"

Jud. "Actually, Mr Hopeless...while I was researching this...I asked God about all your claims...and he assured me that He had never been to your house...or your Church...in fact He said He doesn't even know who you are?"

Ker. "He didn't have to go to any of those places...because I was there for Him...representing Him...and if I was there...He was there in Spirit...and I had power on earth...Mighty power...If that old devil come around...I would say...You old devil...you get out of here right now!...and he wouldn't even stick around long enough to think about it...he was out that door quicker than you could say the Lord's Prayer...That old devil, he was too scared to stay...because he knew...if he got me mad...he was in big T...R...O...U...B...L...E...Yes...that old devil met his match when he met Kermit Hopeless..."

Jud. "Mr Hopeless...you were Hopeless by name...and hopeless by nature...The devil wasn't scared of you!...He was only scared of faithful Christian's who believed and obeyed the Word of God...If the devil had really stood before you...you would have wet your pants...You're the old devil Mr Hopeless...with your lies and deceit..." (Smiles).

Ker. "What did you say?...I'm not going to sit here, and be insulted by the likes of you...If God hears what you just said to Kermit Hopeless...there will be T...R...O...U...B...L...E...and you'll be it, Sonny!...I'm leaving!"

Jud. "Security...Please take Mr Hopeless to the place where the hopeless go..."

Sec. (Take him, and begin to lead him off).

Ker. (Turns and looks at Judgement Angel, then pointing a finger at him, says). "You'll be hearing from God, Sonny!"

(They walk off).

Jud. (Pointing). "And you won't!"

Nar. "The reason why people can believe in delusions...is because they want to...Not so much for themselves...but to impress others...We have a good example of this in Acts chapter 8...where we meet with Simon the Sorcerer...who was...'giving out that himself was some great one'...That's what these people do...they all pretend to be some great one...so that others will revere and honour them...and with the majority of them, as with Kermit...they brazenly con them out of their money as well...in the name of Jesus Christ...But the Lord Jesus will not be mocked...and every one of them will be called to account for all their lies and deceit...and they will all pay the ultimate price for it, at the Judgement."

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Jocelyn...Nash!"

Sec. (Lead Jocelyn Nash on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mrs Nash..."

Joc. "Thank you..."

Jud. "Do you know why you're here, Mrs Nash?"

Joc. "No...of course not...Christian's don't go to the Judgement...because they were already judged in Jesus Christ, at Calvary...That's what my husband taught..."

Jud. "Very good, Mrs Nash...that's true...But you're here because you committed adultery..."

Joc. "Adultery?...I never ever committed adultery...and I will swear to that!"

Jud. "We have you recorded here as having committing adultery 432 times..."

Joc. "What?...This is a huge mistake!...That wasn't me...I never was unfaithful to my husband at any time...Everyone I know will vouch for that!"

Jud. "Our information is never wrong, Mrs Nash..." (Looking at his clipboard). "It seems that these events all occurred at Parkinson's Beach...Do you know of Parkinson's Beach?"

Joc. "Parkinson's Beach?...Yes, we had our holiday home there..."

Jud. (Looking at his clipboard). "Now I see what it was...You were swimming at Parkinson's Beach...dressed immoderately...and men lusted after you..."

Joc. "What do you mean?"

Jud. "The Bible says that a woman should be dressed in moderate apparel...You were swimming and sunning yourself on the beach in what was referred to as a 'bikini'..."

Joc. Of course, I wore a bikini...because everyone else did...it was normal..."

Jud. "Mrs Nash...You were a very beautiful young woman...and when you dressed immoderately...the young men who saw you desired you...and this happened 432 times...according to my records..."

Joc. "But, I never did anything wrong?"

Jud. "There's a saying Mrs Nash...'It takes two to tango'...When those young men lusted sinfully after you...you caused that by your indiscretion...so you were just as guilty of committing adultery as those young men were..."

Joc. "I didn't know I was doing wrong...Why didn't someone warn me?"

Jud. "We did...we sent Rosa Lane to warn you..."

Joc. "Rosa?...She was a prude...She was born a century too late...collars to her neck...and dresses below her knees...Everyone was embarrassed at her..."

Jud. "God wasn't!...We sent her to warn you...but you rejected her advice..."

Joc. "Everyone else rejected her too!"

Jud. "She wasn't sent to them...She was sent to you..."

Joc. "Look...I'm sorry I did that...I didn't know...Can I repent now?...and can we clean this up somehow?"

Jud. "It's too late for that, Mrs Nash...You had to do that on earth...but you didn't ...Security please..."

Joc. (Hysterically). "No...please no!...I'm sorry!...I'm really sorry!...I never meant that to happen! Please help me!...Help me!..."

Sec. (Lead her out).

Joc. (Loud). "I'm sorry!...I'm so sorry!!!"

(They leave).

Nar. "In First Timothy 2:9 it suggests...'that women adorn themselves in modest apparel'...There are many other Scriptures which also teach on modesty...The reason for this is because modest clothing is worn to cover a woman's body...whereas immodest clothing is worn to draw attention to a woman's body...A woman may be truly pure in heart...but that sinner who looks at her when she is immodestly dressed...is not...and she is responsible for what she causes...In Hebrews 12:16-17 it says...'Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright...For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears' ...There is a time to repent...and when that time is over, there is only judgement...and no amount of repentance at that time, can ever turn back the clock."

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...John...Hennessy!"

Sec. (Lead John Hennessy on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mr Hennessy..."

Joh. "That's Bishop Hennessy actually..."

Jud. "Mr Hennessy...there are no Bishops in Heaven..."

Joh. "None at all?..."

Jud. "No...none..."

Joh. "Well...can I have an audience with the Pope please...I need to inform his Highness...and we need to clear this up...immediately..."

Jud. "There are no Popes here either..."

Joh. "There must be!...The Holy Church taught us that the Pope was the ruler of the earth...Are the Popes still on the earth then?"

Jud. "I've heard this all before, Mr Hennessy...Millions of times now...There are Angels...Saints...and God in Heaven...The sinners are all waiting in Hell...and are being judged...as you are..."

Joh. "But...Cardinals?...and Priests?...Where are they?...There must be some here surely?"

Jud. "Many have been and gone...many are still to come...But, to the point Mr Hennessy...do you know why you're here?"

Joh. "No...I have no idea?...Unless it's some Protestant Kangaroo Court?"

Jud. "Mr Hennessy...you're here for bugging little boys..."

Joh. "Do you have to describe it like that?"

Jud. "I can be more clinical...if you insist...Or, I can have one of your victims describe it?"

Joh. "I confessed everything...and I was absolved..."

Jud. "Confessed?...No...you never confessed any of them..." (Looking at his clipboard). "There were hundreds of times...over many years..."

Joh. "But I confessed them all to my Superior...How can this be?"

Jud. "To your Superior?...Mr Hennessy...did you ever read the Bible...by any chance?"

Joh. "Yes..."

Jud. "Good...But let me refresh your mind...First John 1:9 states...'If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.'...That means of course...if we confess our sins to God..."

Joh. "Who do you confess your sins to?"

Jud. "I never sin...so I don't have to confess anything to anyone..."

Joh. "Well...The Holy Mother Church teaches Auricular confession...which means sinners have to confess their sins to a Priest...in order for the Priest to forgive them...and unless your sins are confessed to a Priest...they cannot, and are not, forgiven..."

Jud. "Either you believe what God says...or you believe what your 'church' says...Mr Hennessy...The one is life...and the other is death..."

Joh. "So...does that mean no one who confessed their sins to a Priest had them forgiven?"

Jud. "I'm afraid so..."

Joh. "But how could the Holy Mother Church lie so, to us?"

Jud. "The Devil lied to you...when he inspired your 'church' to believe doctrines outside of the Word of God...Your 'Holy Mother Church' was not God...and your Pope was not God...and God will not be mocked, Mr Hennessy..."

Joh. (Desperately). "Can I confess my sins to God now, Sir?"

Jud. "You committed your sins on earth...and they had to be confessed on earth...It's too late now..."

Joh. "But what about Purgatory?...Don't I go to Purgatory now... and have my sins purged there?"

Jud. "Purgatory?...I've heard that mentioned a lot...but there's no such place...except in the imagination..."

Joh. "Oh...this is bad...This is really bad...I never expected this...I was promised so much more...And to think we even murdered so many millions of others...because they would not join in with us."

Jud. "Yes...and most of them were Godly people..."

Joh. "How could we get it so wrong?...How could the Holy Mother Church get it so wrong..."

Jud. "Most of your Popes have already passed through here...so you won't be seeing them again...and some of them were even much worse than you were...We should talk about how the people who informed on you to your Superiors were ridiculed...as you were whisked away to safety in another country...to carry on unmolested...?"

Joh. "How did you know about that?"

Jud. "There is nothing hidden, which shall not be revealed..."

Joh. "Can I leave now please?...I don't think there's any point in carrying on this conversation any longer?"

Jud. "Security...Please escort Mr Hennessy out, thank you."

Sec. (Come on and walk off with Mr Hennessy, who has his head bowed in shame).

Nar. "In Mark chapter 7, Jesus told a sick man his sins were forgiven...and the Scribes listening thought...'Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God only'...No man can forgive sins...but for 2000 years certain priests have believed they had the authority to do just that...which is lies...Jesus even said...'In vain do you worship me teaching for doctrines the commandments of men'...Man made religion can only take people away from God...and man made forgiveness will leave the sinner unforgiven...and their sins will condemn them at the Judgement."

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Anna...Williams!"

Sec. (Lead Anna Williams on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mrs Williams..."

Ann. (Sits quietly).

Jud. "Now, Mrs Williams...Do you know where you are...and why you're here?"

Ann. "I'm at the Judgement...but I don't know why I'm here at all?"

Jud. "You're here because you're a sinner...Mrs Williams."

Ann. "A sinner?...But I was a Christian...I went to 'church'..."

Jud. "Mrs Williams...it was wisely stated...'If going into a 'church' makes you a Christian...then going into a pigsty makes you a pig'...You went to 'church' to be with your 'church' family...not to hear from God..."

Ann. "But that's what 'church' was about...being with your 'church' family!...you know...birds of a feather..."

Jud. "That may be what 'church' was about...but it is not what Christianity was about...If you read your Bible, you would know that John 17:3 states plainly... 'And this is eternal life that they might know thee, the only true God...and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent'...That's what Christianity was about...knowing God...and knowing our Lord Jesus Christ personally...knowing your 'church' family doesn't come into the equation at all...Mrs Williams..."

Ann. "But...that's how everyone understood Christianity...It was about being a good member of your community...helping those whom you could...and going to 'church' ...that's what we all did?"

Jud. "Mrs Williams...you could have been a member of just about any social club...and been a good member of your community...and helpful...you didn't have to go to 'church' to do that...That wasn't why people went to Church...Church wasn't a social club...it was a gathering of those who had met God personally...they gathered to worship Him and learn how to have a closer walk with Him..."

Ann. "But I was born a Christian...both my parents went to 'church'...I always went to 'church'..."

Jud. "Your parents may have been Christian's Mrs Williams...but that didn't make you a Christian...because God doesn't have any grandchildren...He only has sons and daughters..."

Ann. "But I never lied...I never stole anything...I never murdered anyone...I was a good person..."

Jud. "That would make you a good member of your community and your 'church'...and that is commendable...but no one became a Christian by being a 'good person'...They only became a Christian by meeting our Lord in person...and being born again...That's what our Lord told Nicodemus...'Ye must be born again'...He did not say Ye could...It wasn't an option...He said Ye must...there were no shortcuts...you had to be born again..."

Ann. "But I didn't need to...I was already born a Christian..."

Jud. "As I said Mrs Williams...God doesn't have any grandchildren...You weren't born His grandchild...you were born a sinner...And for the record...there is a great gulf between Christianity and 'churchianity'...One gets you into heaven...the other one only gets you into hell..."

Ann. "But Christianity was about going to 'church'...Everyone who went to 'church' was a Christian...I lived in a Christian nation...we were all Christian's anyway..."

Jud. "No, Mrs Williams...each individual had to meet our Lord personally...and be born again personally...to become a new creation...Christianity was each new creation living in a new covenant with our Lord...and together, they were the Church...Church was not a building...it was the new creation as the living Body of Jesus Christ on earth..."

Ann. "I'm sorry...but I never heard any of that at 'church'...we were taught to be good moral people in an immoral world...we were examples to the unchurched...No one could accuse us of doing anything wrong..."

Jud. "Except God...You never did anything wrong...but then, you never did anything right either...I'm sorry Mrs Williams but you are a sinner...and that cannot be atoned for now...Security please!"

Sec. (Lead Mrs Williams off).

Ann. (To Security Angels). "I never ever told a lie...I never stole anything either...I think someone has made a mistake here..."

(They leave).

Nar. "God doesn't make mistakes...When he said...'Ye must be born again'...it wasn't an option...The New heavens and the new earth...as described in Revelation chapter 21...will only be populated by the New Creation of 2 Corinthians 5:17...‘That which is born of the flesh is flesh’...as the Lord told Nicodemus...and it will die in the lake of fire...Eternal life is not a reward for a life of good deeds...no matter how good that life...Eternal life is the life of a new creation...and only that life will enter into the Presence of God for Eternity.”

Jud. "Hello...take a seat please, Mr Fitzroy..."

Elm. "Thank you..."

Jud. "Now, Mr Fitzroy...you were a Pastor at an..." (Looks at his clipboard). "Adventist Church...is this true?"

Elm. "Yes!...We believed the Second Advent would happen...and Jesus Christ would return to take us unto Himself...and we all followed the teachings of Ellen White in preparing ourselves for that event...but it never happened..."

Jud. "Well...Yes, it did, Mr Fitzroy...Our Lord returned for His Holy Church...the dead in Christ arose...and with the living Saints they left the earth together...before the great destruction..."

Elm. "The dead in Christ arose?...But how could that be?...Why didn't I go?"

Jud. "Because you weren't ready to meet Him, Mr Fitzroy..."

Elm. "Why not?...I faithfully kept all the precepts I was taught...and I fulfilled all the conditions...I was even a vegetarian for forty years...and I loved eating meat?"

Jud. "Come, come, Mr Fitzroy...What has that got to do with anything?"

Elm. "Our Prophetess, Ellen White had a revelation...Unless you were a vegetarian when Jesus returned...you would not go with Him..."

Jud. "So...did you go with Him?"

Elm. "No...it seems not?"

Jud. "No...because there is no such thing in the Bible...Did you find it in the Bible?"

Elm. "I never looked...I believed what my 'church' taught me...But I had the Seal of God...I always faithfully kept the Sabbath!"

Jud. "Mr Fitzroy...Ephesians 1:13 clearly states...'Ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise'...and Ephesians 4:30 also clearly states...'And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption'...God's Holy Spirit is the Seal of God...not keeping the Sabbath..."

Elm. "But Ellen White said..."

Jud. "But God said..."

Elm. "But Ellen White taught us that Calvary was not enough to save anyone...we had to keep the Law as well...the Ten Commandments...We had to keep the sabbath..."

Jud. "Let me remind you Mr Fitzroy...in Romans 3:20-22, St Paul said...'Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in His sight...for by the law is the knowledge of sin...But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested...being witnessed by the law and the prophets...Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe'...The Law only revealed the extent of man's sin...Keeping the law could not save anyone from sin...Only perfect faith in God's atoning work on Calvary could save a sinner...You should have checked everything with the Bible, before you accepted it as truth..."

Elm. "But...we were taught that these were new revelations given to the 'church'?"

Jud. "Mr Fitzroy...are you familiar with the Scripture which says...'If they speak not according to this Word...it is because there is no light in them?'"

Elm. "Yes...I am..."

Jud. "And where our Lord said...'If the light that is in thee be darkness...how great is that darkness?'"

Elm. "Yes..."

Jud. "If the doctrines which you were taught were not according to the Word...then they were inspired by a wrong spirit...and obeying that spirit could only lead you away from God...and into darkness...Are you aware of that?"

Elm. "But she had visions from God and..."

Jud. "Mr Fitzroy...I'm sure that you...being a Pastor...would be familiar with our Lord's Words... 'But in vain do they worship me...teaching for doctrines the commandments of men'...or women as the case may be?"

Elm. "Yes...very...But we were taught these doctrines came straight from God...and we had to keep them to be saved...it was not a choice...it was an ultimatum...we had to believe them...or else...!"

Jud. "Mr Fitzroy...You had the choice to believe them...or believe the Word of God ...and you chose to believe them..."

Elm. "Because I was told they were straight from the mouth of God!...So where is our prophetess?"

Jud. "She has already been here...and gone...There is a warning given in the last chapter of revelation...for such as this...it warns...'For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book...If any man shall add unto these things...God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book...And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy...God shall take away his part out of the book of life...and out of the Holy City...and from the things which are written in this book'...You should have checked the doctrines you were being taught against the Scriptures first...before you accepted them as Gospel...and lived by them...Security please!"

Elm. (Horried). "Oh no!...Oh no!...Please no?"

Sec. (Take Mr Fitzroy).

Jud. "One more Scripture Mr Fitzroy...'If the blind lead the blind...both shall fall into the ditch!'...Take him away please!"

Sec. (Take him off).

Nar. "The Lord Jesus has Apostles...Prophets...Evangelists...Pastors...and Teachers...in the Body of Christ...and He works and speaks through each one of them...but He will always speak according to His written Word in the Bible...He warned us to...'Beware of false prophets...which come to you in sheep's clothing...but inwardly they are ravening wolves'...Why would a wolf come dressed as a sheep?...Because they want something which is not theirs to have...Something which the Lord has not given them...The reason why we have false prophets...is because there are those who want to have others follow them...without being ordained to it by the Lord...St Paul admonished us to...'Follow me, as I follow Christ'...A true man of God will always lead us to God...But a false prophet will always lead us away...by their false doctrines...to destruction."

End.

Disappointments at the Judgement Skit #17

The lie doctor 2

(Ole Wormsteen is a mealy-mouthed coward, who smiles constantly, even when he is talking, and tries to please everyone, without offending anyone).

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Ole...Wormsteen!"

Sec. (Lead Ole Wormsteen on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mr Wormsteen...and before we start...I think you should put this on...it's the Lie Doctor..."

Ole. "The Lie Detector?"

Jud. "No...the Lie Doctor...here...it cures people from lying..."

Ole. (Puts the ring on).

Jud. "I hope you don't mind wearing it?"

Ole. "No...of course not...It looks good...I might even get one of my own...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand in pain).

Jud. "Now...Do you swear to tell the truth...and nothing but the truth?"

Ole. "Yes, I do...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "I thought so!...Now...in your time you were accused by many other Ministers of explaining away the Word of God...They said you explained it in such an ambiguous manner...that anyone could get any meaning they wanted from it...Is this true or false?"

Ole. "False...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "Could you explain your method of teaching for us please?"

Ole. "Well...I read where St Paul said...'he became all things to all men, that by any means he might win some'...and I always thought old St Paul was pretty good...So that's what I did...I explained the Bible in simple terms so that anyone could understand it easily...Ahhh!..." (Shaking his hand). "This thing zaps me every time I speak...is this a joke?"

Jud. "Mr Wormsteen...Do you ever tell the truth?"

Ole. "Of course I do!...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "So, what did you think of those who identified as LBGTQ?...Did you think they would go to hell?"

Ole. (Looks at the ring). "Well...here's the thing, you see...'God is love'...and I never found anywhere in the Bible where God condemned them...He may have condemned their behaviour...but He never condemned them personally...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "So, did you believe any of them would go to hell?"

Ole. (Looking at the ring). "That's for God to decide...not me..."

Jud. "Yes...probably best if God does decide that one...not you...But did you believe anyone would be condemned at all?"

Ole. "Okay...see, so here's the thing again...'God is love'...and love and mercy go hand in hand...and God is just so loving and kind...that I can't see Him condemning anyone to hell for eternity...He so loved the world...So I just can't see a loving God condemning anyone...because that's not in His nature...and Pope Benedict said everyone would be saved...so he understood the nature of God too...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "So, you believed everyone would be saved...no matter how they lived...no matter whether they loved God, or hated Him...served Him...or were a member of a terrorist religion that fought against Him?...Mr Wormsteen, that is just as ridiculous as saying that everyone who enters a race wins first prize...whether they trained hard and tried hard...or if they didn't even run it...What sort of a fool would do that?...and what sort of a fool do you take God for?"

Ole. "I think people misunderstand God...'God is love'...and I just think that a loving God is so much bigger than we are...and He sees past our mortal weaknesses...He sees our hearts...Ahhh!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "Well, here's the thing actually...It's found in Galatians 5:19...I don't believe you're familiar with it...Your friend St Paul writes...'Now the works of the flesh are manifest... which are these...Adultery...fornication...uncleanness...lasciviousness...Idolatry...witchcraft...hatred...variance...emulations...wrath strife...seditions...heresies...Envyings...murders...drunkenness...revellings and such like...of the which I tell you before...as I have also told you in time past...that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God'...Which part of...'shall not inherit the Kingdom of God'... don't you believe, Mr Wormsteen?"

Ole. "You know...when I think about the nature of God...'God is love'...it makes me question whether God truly inspired those verses?...I mean...they may have been added by someone else?"

Jud. "'God is love'...Well, just in case you didn't notice it...that isn't the only verse in the Bible Mr Wormsteen...Love and Justice also go hand in hand...So, what would you do if you were God?"

Ole. "Well...'God is love'...I would be loving and welcome everyone in...because I would see past people's weaknesses..."

Jud. "They're called sins Mr Wormsteen, not weaknesses...I think I've listened to about as much of this drivel as I can take!"

Rec. "Me too!"

Jud. "Security...Please show Mr Wormsteen the way out..."

Sec. (Come on, and taking an arm each, begin to lead Ole Wormsteen off).

Ole. "Am I going to meet God now?"

Jud. "A Scripture for you Mr Wormsteen...'When thou wast young thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst...but when thou shalt be old...thou shalt stretch forth thine hands and another shall gird thee...and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.'"

Ole. "Talk about ambiguous?...What does that mean?"

Jud. "It means you're going to find out just how loving and just God really is..."

Ole. "Thank you...I'll tell God how much I appreciated Him being so loving and non-judgemental...Oh...everyone will be there...they'll all be there...all my LGBTQ friends will be there...and I'll personally tell the Pope I agreed with him...he was right! AHHH!" (Shaking his hand).

Jud. "I'd better have that ring back...some of your friends will be along shortly...and I'm certain I'll need it!" (Takes the ring off Ole Wormsteen's finger).

Sec. (Lead him off).

Jud. (Looking at Recording Angel). "There's one at every barbeque..."

Rec. "Yep...One short of a six-pack!"

Jud. "Two short..."

(Both laugh).

Jud. "Okay...Who's next?" (Looking at his clipboard).

Nar. "God is love...but He's also just...An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth...that's His judgement...No one will get more or less than what they deserve...though there will be surprises...'I was hungry and you fed me'...and disappointments...'I was hungry and you fed me not'...And He will not just open the gates wide...and let everyone in...There was a time for mercy...and a time for grace...but that time passed on earth...and the Judgement will be just that...the sentencing of those who rejected God's mercy and grace."

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Pauline...Trite!"

Sec. (Lead Pauline Trite on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mrs Trite."

Pau. "Actually...You're mistaken there...I'm not Pauline Trite...I was married twice more after my first marriage...and I always went by my new married name...Pauline Black..."

Jud. "Yes...well...That's where it all starts, Mrs Trite...So, I think we will begin there...You know, our Lord said...'He who marrieth her who is divorced, committeth adultery'...So, anytime a woman is remarried...while she still has a living husband...she is living in adultery?"

Pau. "But I didn't love my first husband...and I did love my third husband..."

Jud. "Mrs Trite...You only had one husband...and as long as he was alive...the others whom you were supposedly married to...were not your husbands...you were committing adultery with them...And you called yourself a 'Pastor'...so, you must know that Galatians 5:20 says...'Adulterers will not enter the kingdom of God,'..."

Pau. "But...I served God...?"

Jud. "To go on from there...you also called yourself an 'Apostle'...But our Lord never ever ordained one single woman as a Pastor...or an Apostle...The only women who ever stood behind a pulpit were ungodly women...who defied our Lord and His Holy Word, Mrs Trite...You appointed yourself to that role...because you were so self-willed ...and on top of that you cut your hair off... and First Corinthians 11 declares that a woman's hair is given to her for a covering... and a woman cannot pray or prophesy without her head being covered by her hair..."

Pau. "God doesn't look on the hair...he looks on the heart!"

Jud. "Everyone uses that excuse, Mrs Trite...but yes, He does look on the heart...and the reason why so many women did not obey His Word...is because their heart was not right with Him...as yours was not!...But now, we'll go on from there...to a few of the times you lied..."

Pau. "I never lied!"

Jud. (Looking through the pages on his clipboard). "You changed your testimony so many times, that a person who heard it twice would never believe you were talking about the same events?...Here's a time at a conference when you stopped speaking and said you wanted 100,000 dollars to come in...You said...'I'm not going to lay hands on people until you're obedient'...and you stated...'This isn't about me...this is about kids who will die...without you being obedient'...But it was about you...and money...you were lying...and again Galatians 5:20 declares...'Liars will not enter the kingdom of God'..."

Pau. "I was only trying to raise the money to use for the kingdom of God..."

Jud. (Looking at his clipboard). "Well...I have figures here...on what you spent on your so-called 'Ministry'...and what you spent on yourself...Mansions...Designer clothes... a Private jet...the list goes on and on...a little went on your so-called 'Ministry'...but the majority was spent on yourself..."

Pau. "All the others did exactly the same things!"

Jud. "Yes, they did...and like you they are all being called to account for it...and pay for it...the same as you are...So, what do we have so far?...Committing adultery...and those who commit adultery shall not enter the kingdom of God...Then we have lying...and Liars will not enter the Kingdom of God either...Then you cut your hair off, contrary to the express Word of our Lord...I really don't think we need to go any further, Mrs Trite... You titled yourself an Apostle...a Pastor...and even a Prophetess... when you were none of those things...You were an adulterer...a liar...and a thief... preying off the weaknesses of those whom you had conned into following you...and to top that off...Our Lord told me...He never even knew you?"

Pau. "But I healed the sick...and I inspired others to trust God for greater things..."

Jud. "By conning them out of their money...Mrs Trite...your name describes you perfectly...You spouted a lot of unscriptural nonsense...while you tried to convince your followers that they were a part of something great for God...When God knew nothing of it...You went on and on telling people they were healed...when not a single one was...You lied to steal their money for yourself...and you lived in luxury...while those who funded it, mostly lived hand to mouth..."

Pau. "But...I only wanted to be a blessing for God!"

Jud. "Mrs Trite...Our Lord never knew you...and He never will know you...or your followers whom you deceived into believing they were saved because they followed you...when they are all lost for eternity...Security...Please take Mrs trite away..."

Pau. "Please...I'll give the money back, I promise!...Please forgive me...I beg you?"

Jud. "Mrs Trite...Did you ever think about your followers...while you were lying to them?...Telling them you were sent by God?...They believed you...and were deceived into being condemned for eternity by your teachings...Security...Take that woman out of here please..."

Pau. "I won't do it again...ever!...I promise!...I won't do it again...I'll..."

(They walk off).

Nar. "Parasites live off their victims...and have no care for their welfare...Television Evangelists are among the most appallingly parasitical creatures outside of the Kingdom of God...They lie...They steal...and they convince their followers that they have powers so much greater than anyone else on earth...When it is all deception...and a ploy to steal from those whom they are supposedly 'helping'...They live in outlandish luxury...while pretending to need more and more...of their victim's cash...Everything has been recorded...and everything will have to be accounted for, before the Judge of all the earth...All those who accounted to none but themselves...will need to account to Him...who searches the hearts...and His Judgement will be just...and final."

Variety is the spice of death

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Owen...Jones!"

Sec. (Lead Owen Jones on).

Jud. "Take a seat please Mr Jones."

Owe. (Sits and looks at the Judge).

Jud. "Do you have any idea why you're here, Mr Jones?"

Owe. "Not at all...I don't believe I should be?"

Jud. "Well...You're here to answer for the times when you committed adultery..."

Owe. "I had a few other women...but who was keeping score?"

Jud. "We were Mr Jones...There were 76 of them..."

Owe. "I always thought variety was the spice of life...and I liked my food spicy!"

Jud. "So...what did your wife say about this?"

Owe. "She never said a word about it..."

Jud. "Because she knew nothing about it...and she would have left you if she found out..."

Owe. "Maybe?"

Jud. "Maybe?...What if she had done the same with 76 other men...would you have stayed with her?"

Owe. "No..."

Jud. "Why not?...What's spice for the gander is spice for the goose...isn't it?"

Owe. "She shouldn't..."

Jud. "Why not?...You wanted her to be pure...while you were being filthy...That's called hypocrisy isn't it?"

Owe. "It was only harmless fun..."

Jud. (Looking through the pages on his clipboard). "It seems that the majority of these women whom you committed adultery with were also married...so why couldn't your wife do the same?"

Owe. "She was a good woman..."

Jud. "Yes, she was a good woman...and she didn't need spice...Did you love these other women?"

Owe. "No...I loved my wife..."

Jud. "You had a funny way of showing it to her...Because you were always so proud of your conquests."

Owe. "It was only harmless fun..."

Jud. "Our Lord doesn't see it like that..."

Owe. "I regret it all now!"

Jud. "Everyone says they regret it when they stand before me...but it's too late..."

Owe. "So...Will we still be spending eternity together?...We talked about that often..."

Jud. "She has eternal life...because she was a good Christian as you know...but you won't be with her..."

Owe. "Will she remember all the good times we had together?"

Jud. "No...as the Bible revealed...'For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.'...She will remember nothing of you..."

Owe. (Looking at the ground). "I am such a fool...I really want to be with my wife!"

Jud. "Now is the time to regret things...but it is not the time to repent..."

Owe. "It was just a game to us..."

Jud. "Well...the game's over now...and you lost."

Owe. "So, what happens now?"

Jud. "She has gone to her reward...and you will go to yours."

Owe. "Could you give her a message from me please?...Tell her I..."

Jud. "No, I can't...She already has no idea that you ever existed...Security...please take Mr Jones to his reward..."

Sec. (Come on, and lead Mr Jones off).

Jud. (To Recording Angel). "Harmless fun?"

Rec. "Nothing could be more harmful..."

Jud. "That's for sure!...Now...who's next?"

Nar. "'They two shall become one flesh'...That's how the Lord views marriage...because he instigated it...It lasts...'Until death us do part'...No third person enters that union in any way...because it is a sacred union...typing the union of a believer with Jesus Christ...which death will not part...because it will last for all eternity...Marriage is a sacred union, which should never be defiled...because as St Paul warned us in Hebrews...'Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled, but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge'...and He will judge them without mercy."

The wide and easy way

(Judgement Angel and Recording Angel are sitting at a table talking, when Judgement Angel looks at his clipboard and stands).

Jud. (Cups his hands to his mouth). "Call...Molly...Temple!"

Sec. (Lead Molly Temple on).

Jud. "Take a seat please, Mrs Temple...I have to begin with the same Scripture I have had to quote to most of you women preachers...The Lord's declaration was... 'Whosoever marrieth her who is divorced committeth adultery'...it's a Scripture you all seem to ignore?"

Mol. "I really don't believe the Lord thinks like that..."

Jud. "Why not, Mrs Temple?"

Mol. "Because I think He would be more considerate of people...and their situations...I don't think it was so black and white...That wasn't the Jesus I preached..."

Jud. "No, that's true...the Jesus whom you preached was an effeminate weakling, who wouldn't have the guts to chase the money changers out of the Temple with a whip...He would have tried to reason with them...so He didn't offend anyone...Your Jesus was not offended by sin...He was a self-help guru...who pleased everyone by surrendering to them..."

Mol. "He showed more love to the world than your Jesus would..."

Jud. "So...you got married five times...because you thought the Lord cared more for your happiness than He did for the truth?"

Mol. "He loved us...and He only wanted the best for us!"

Jud. "Mrs Temple...The fact is not that you never believed the Bible was truth...the fact of the matter is that you never knew our Lord personally...because if you did, you would have known that the Bible contains the mind of the Lord...because...'Holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost'...it's not that you did not believe that...it is that you believed people should be free to be happy...but happiness comes down to making good choices in the first place...because anytime you make a wrong choice it complicates everything...and life becomes a tangled web..."

Mol. "You have no idea what I felt...or why I believed what I did..."

Jud. "Mrs Temple...I'm an Angel...I see into the minds of people and I understand their motives..."

Mol. "My motives were pure!"

Jud. "Not really...You wanted to please yourself, rather than please God...that's what your motive was..."

Mol. "I tried to help everyone...A lot of these people were in bad relationships...and I gave them a chance to have a better life..."

Jud. "Two wrongs never made a right, Mrs Temple...You never warned anyone that being remarried was not marriage...it was adultery...Instead you encouraged it...and you married these people..."

Mol. "I was their 'pastor'"

Jud. "Mrs Temple...I've said this to a thousand women already...and I will repeat it for your sake...Our Lord never ordained a single woman as a Pastor...It was man-made religious clubs which ordained women as 'pastors'...without God..."

Mol. "My denomination ordained a lot of women..."

Jud. "Yes, it did...because it ignored the Bible...just like you did...Every seed brings forth after its kind...and your denomination only brought forth more of its own kind...as you did...Your 'preaching' was only self-improvement classes..."

Mol. "People were happy...and they had much better lives..."

Jud. "They were looking for an easy way out...and you gave it to them...But our Lord's way was straight...and it was narrow...and few there were that found it...You offered a wide and easy way...and you led everyone to destruction...Mrs Temple...our Lord never knew you...and you will never know Him...Security...Please take Mrs Temple away!"

Sec. (Come on, and lead her off).

Mol. "At least I made people happy for a while!"

Jud. "Our Lord's way, makes people happy for eternity...Goodbye..."

Nar. "Wide and easy is just that...very easy...There are no demands put upon you...there is no self-sacrifice...there is no denying yourself...there is only subjection to your own desires and pleasures...which leads you further and further away from God with every step...and eventually...to your destruction...Our Lord's way is hard...and it is narrow...but He only wants what is best for us...not what is good for us...He hates sin...because it harms us more and more...like scars that build up with each wound we receive...He would have us without spot or wrinkle...without sin...so He constantly warns us of its dangers...and only by walking the straight and narrow path with Him, can we ever be free from it.”
