

Love never dies (PS)

Words and music by Kevin Lee

Am F Am F Am F G C

I knew her when I was young, two crazy lovers just holding hands.

Vowing ourselves to each other, spinning our dreams and weaving our plans.

But somewhere along the line, she went her way and I went mine.

But in my mind, those two crazy lovers are still holding hands,

For love never dies, and all those things she told me , I just can't forget,

No matter how hard I try, for love never dies.

A dreamer can live on his dreams, but a man who's been in love,

He wants the real thing. The future's as grey as the past,

But those times I spent with you, will always last.

For love never dies, and all the things you told me,

I just can't forget, no matter how hard I try, for love never dies.

I've said all those things that I had to say, now all that I've got here are yesterdays,

We never knew any tomorrows,

But now here they are, and they're all filled with sorrows,

Love never dies, and all those things she told me, I just can't forget,

No matter how hard I try, for love never dies."
