

The calm in the midst of the storm (DS)

Words and music by Kevin Lee

G

D

The wind and the waves obeyed their Master, out on the stormy sea.

G

We were sore afraid, and we had no hope,

C

D

Till we cried for help, and the Master spoke.

G

He said, "Peace, be still!" That's all He said.

D

Just, "Peace, be still!"

C

D

G

And the wind and the waves obeyed.

G

D

When we stood at the grave of Lazarus, among his weeping friends,

G

Lazarus was dead, as the Master had said,

D

And he had no hope, till the Master spoke.

G

He said, "Lazarus, come forth!" That's all He said!

D

Just, "Lazarus, come forth!"

C

D

G

And the dead man walked out of his tomb.

G

D

When we passed through the town of Jericho, a beggar sat by the way.

G

He was blind as night, and he had no hope,

D

Till he cried out for mercy, and Jesus spoke.

G

He said, "Go thy way!" That's all He said.

D

Just, "Go thy way!"

C

D

G

And the beggar, was blind no more.

G

D

As we travel this weary path of life, at our Master's side,

G

When the storms arise, and it looks so bleak,

D

Do we fear, or trust our Master to speak?

G

He'll say, "Peace, be still!" If we trust Him to.

D

Just, "Peace be still!"

C

D

G

He's our calm in the midst of the storm.

G

D

The wind and the waves obeyed their Master, out on the stormy sea.

G

If the wind and the waves can believe His Voice,

D

When He speaks the Word, then why can't we?

G

A dead man could, and he came back to life!

D

A blind man could, he received his sight!

C

D

G

Then what does He have, for you and me?
