The Lord Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by me."

5.

That sounds as if everyone else who claim to be leading people to God, must be leading them somewhere else instead?

He says there is only one way, "I am the way." How can you know He is right? Because the Bible also says, 'And this is the record, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that has the Son has life; and he that has not the Son of God has not life.'

Our Bahai friends tell us all paths lead to God, as if every cult and religion were serving the same God, and following any one of them will lead you to the same destination in the end.

If that were true, then there would be no basic differences between them, but instead, there are many. Some will tell you that you must be a vegetarian, while others say it is a sin to eat pork, then others will tell you there is nothing wrong with eating pork.

The list of differences goes on and on. So, just who is right then, or are they all right? Because if they're all right, then they're all wrong as well.

If the ones who says you must be a vegetarian are right, then all the meat-eaters are wrong. And if the meat-eaters are right, then the ones telling you that you must be a vegetarian are lying.

So, they can't all be leading you to God obviously, when they're leading you up different paths, in different directions.
