Secretary

Desk and 2 chairs
Paper bag

(Reverend Wolff is sitting at his desk, when there is a knock at the door, and he answers it).

Wol. (Opens door).

Joh. "Hello Reverend Wolff...I'm...Ah...Johnny Embezzler."

Wol. "Good evening, Johnny...Come on in won't you...and have a chair."

Joh. "Thank you."

Wol. "Now...How can I help you?"

Joh. "I um...I...Oh Reverend Wolff you have to help me!"

Wol. "Whatever's the matter?"

Joh. (Blurts out). "I'm at my wits end...I've been embezzling money at work and I'm going to be found out...and I've been thinking of all sorts of horrible ways to end it!"

Wol. "Oh no Child...Tell me all about it?"

Joh. "Well...I started just...You know...taking a bit here and there for lunch...and then I thought I might be short over the weekend...and then I took more and more...and I'm just glad they don't hang people any longer..."

Wol. (Shaking his head).

Joh. "...And I went to a friend at Church who I thought I could confide in...and he only said that Judas carried the money bag and he dipped his hand in it...and..."

Wol. "What?...You mean he was stealing from it?"

Joh. "Um...Yes."

Wol. "And wasn't he one of the Disciples...or something?"

Joh. "Um...Yes he was..."

Wol. "Well then...If it's good enough for one of the Disciples...surely it's good enough for you too?...What's sauce for the Goose is sauce for the Gander after all!"

Joh. "It is?"

Wol. "Do you think Jesus would choose a Disciple who would do something wrong?"

Joh. "Um?...No I didn't think He would..."

Wol. "No...of course He wouldn't...If it was wrong, He wouldn't have chosen him."

Joh. "But...I'm just afraid that tomorrow when I go to work...I'm going to be found out and exposed...and...and I'll lose my job...and I'll be a pariah at Church...and..."

Wol. "Oh come come!...What does the Bible say about tomorrow?"

Joh. "Ah...Um...It says..."

Wol. "It says, take no thought for tomorrow...So just live joyfully today and know that tomorrow is in God's good hands."

Joh. "So...I don't need to go and confess it or anything?"

Wol. "Did Judas go and confess it?"

Joh. "I...I don't know?"

Wol. "No you don't...Because if he did it would be written in the Bible wouldn't it? And it isn't...Is it?"

Joh. "No...I don't think so..."

Wol. "There!...then just take Judas as your example...and live a life like he did...and you'll end up where he did...in Heaven...I think?"

Joh. "I didn't see it like that!"

Wol. "Sometimes it just takes wisdom and experience to delve into the complexities of life and solve one's problems."

Joh. "Oh, thank you so much Reverend Wolff...I feel like a terrible burden's been lifted from me...I am so relieved...I just can't thank you enough."

Wol. "It's alright...I'm a Wolff in Sheep's clothing after all...that's what I'm here for!"

Joh. "Thank you again...I'll go home and tell my Wife about it now."

Wol. "Bye...And remember Jesus cares!"

(John leaves and Secretary walks in carrying a paper bag).

Sec. "He's a Happy Camper...Who is he?"

Wol. "Oh...Just some poor lost soul who needed guidance."

Sec. "Here's your dinner Reverend."

Wol. "Thank you...But where's the rest of my change?"

Sec. "That's all he gave me!"

Wol. "The dirty crook...he diddled you!...I'll steal something from him and see how he likes it...Pity they don't hang thieves like they used to...the rotten swindler."

Nar. "Things don't just 'go away'...even if they do seem to be hidden from the rest of the world...The Lord Jesus warned us in Matthew 10:26...'there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, and hid, that shall not be known'...All the murderers who thought they'd committed the 'perfect crime'...the Thieves who thought they'd 'gotten away with it'...will all have to answer for their crimes at the Judgement...And not just for their deeds...In Matthew 12:36...The Lord Jesus said...'But I say unto you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of Judgement'...Yes, they are all known...and all will be revealed!"

Mrs Adulteress

Reverend Wolff/Narrator
Mrs Adulteress

Props

Desk or table and 2 chairs

(Reverend Wolff is sitting at his desk, when there is a knock at the door).

Rev. (Opens door).

Adu. "Ah...Hello Reverend...I'm Mrs Adulteress..."

Rev. "Hello child...I'm Reverend-Wolf-in-Sheep's-Clothing...do come in."

Adu. (Enters and sits with her head down).

Rev. "How can I help you child?"

Adu. (Still sits with her head down, then bursts into tears). "Oh Reverend...I'm so ashamed and disgusted with myself...I've been committing adultery."

Rev. "Oh...Poor child..."

Adu. "I can't sleep at night...and I can't eat, I'm so worried...and everyone tells me how evil it is...and I'm at my wit's end."

Rev. "Do you ever read bumper stickers?"

Adu. "What?"

Rev. "Bumper stickers...You know...on cars?"

Adu. "Sometimes...why?"

Rev. "Have you read the one that says...‘God is Love’?"

Adu. "Well...Yes...but why?"

Rev. "If God is Love...can Love ever be wrong?"

Adu. "But everyone tells me that what I'm doing is so wrong."

Rev. "Wrong?...If God is Love...and what you're doing is wrong...then God is wrong...Love is never wrong...because God is Love."

Adu. "Hmm...I've never thought of it like that...But if it's right, why do I have such bad feelings of condemnation?...and my friends tell me the Bible says..."

Rev. (Interrupting). "People who quote the Bible will have a lot to answer for at the Judgement...If I believed there was a Judgement...which I don't..."

Adu. "But they told me the Bible says..."

Rev. (Interrupting). "Those verses probably weren't even in the originals..."

Adu. "Well...could you pray about this for me, please?"

Rev. "Pray?...No...you don't need prayer child...You need counselling."

Adu. "Counselling?"

Rev. "Yes, counselling...to help You overcome those feelings of condemnation and guilt you're living under...and to lift your Self-esteem to a level where you can walk down the street with your head held high...Knowing that everything you do is good...because God is good...and God loves you"

Adu. "Really?...And to think I've been dreading coming here, because I thought you'd tell me I'm going to Hell."

Rev. "Hell?...There's no such place as Hell...and if there was...People like you wouldn't go there...only bad people would."

Adu. "Really?"

Rev. "Do you call yourself a Christian?"

Adu. "Yes!...Well...I used to..."

Rev. "Where do Christians go?"

Adu. "To Heaven?"

Rev. "Yes...to Heaven...so you'll go to Heaven!"

Adu. "Oh...I feel so much better already."

Rev. "Yes...I can see that..."

Adu. "And thank you for helping me...But what shall I do about the Church I go to?...They keep telling me it's so wrong and..."

Rev. (Interrupting). "Sounds like a terrible place to me...don't stay around critics like them...Find a Church where you'll be accepted...I could even recommend one..."

Adu. "Yes, do please."

Rev. "As you know...'Birds of a feather flock together'...I'd go to the, 'Church-of-the-Woman-taken-in-Adultery' if I were you...They're understanding and non-judgemental...You'd fit in perfectly."

Adu. "Good...I'll do that...And thank you so much for your advice."

Rev. "That's what I'm here for...I'm a Wolff-in-Sheep's-Clothing after all."

Adu. "Well...Goodbye."

Rev. "Bye."

(Mrs Adulteress leaves).

Nar. "Explaining away someone's problems or sins will not solve them...It merely brushes them under the carpet, out of sight...We live in a guilt-ravaged society...that has lost the privilege of confessing their sins to the Lord and having them forgiven...Instead, we bear them throughout life as an ever-increasing burden that will eventually condemn us for eternity...Guilt is not the problem...Sin is the problem. Guilt is our conscience's way of warning us that our Sin has not been dealt with yet...Once the Sin has been confessed to the Lord and forgiven...according to 1 John 1:9...then the guilt will go away by itself....In John 8:36, the Lord Jesus said...'If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed'...Yes free...and with a clear conscience."

Reverend Blood and Thunder Skit #1

Stairway to heaven

Performers x 3

Reverend Blood and Thunder/Narrator

Tim

Robert

Props

Chairs x 2

(Tim and Robert are walking together, looking up at the signs on the building).

Tim. (Pointing). "Yeah...This is the Church!"

Rob. "Is this the one Duncan went to?"

Tim. "Yep...They'll tell us how to get to Heaven!"

(They enter the Church and sit. The Reverend comes out and stands before them).

Rev. "Good Morning everybody...I'm Reverend Blood and Thunder...I tell you just what God says...and I don't pull any punches...or sugar-coat anything for you..!"

(Boys look at each other wondering).

Rev. (Loud). "I don't know what you two are doing here?"

Tim. "Is he talking to us?"

Rob. (Looking behind them). "Don't think so?"

Rev. "Yes...You two!...With your," (Sarcastically). "Little Designer tops and Baggy jeans and horrible little spiky hair...You're going to Hell!"

Tim. "Us?"

Rob. "No...can't be?"

Rev. "There won't be any Worldly Designer Labels or shaggy haircuts in Heaven...They will all be in Hell...with you two!" (Pointing at the boys).

Tim. "It is us!"

Rob. "I thought Duncan said...?"

Tim. "Maybe it's the wrong Church?"

Rob. "Maybe we should go?"

Tim. "Yeah!"

(They stand up).

Rev. (Thundering). "YOU SIT DOWN!...I haven't finished with you yet!...Before this day is over you will be dead!..."

Rob. (Horrified). "Us?"

Tim. "Why?"

Rev. "...in Sin...and you'll be sliding down that long slippery path to Hell for the rest of your lives!"

(Looking at each other).

Rev. "Then you'll go to the Judgement...and the Angels will be on their knees weeping for you," (He stresses this). "Because you wear your funny little designer clothes and funny little running shoes...and they'll weep when you're banished to the blackness of Hell for Eternity!...And..."

Tim. "I'm going!"

Rob. "Me too."

(They stand up).

Rev. (Pointing at them). "You sit down!"

(They start walking).

Rev. "Go on then!...Walk away...You can't bear to hear the Voice of God from my lips...Yes!...Carry on down that long slippery slope to Hell for all Eternity..."

(Boys outside).

Rob. "That was scary!"

Tim. "You said it!"

Rob. "Duncan said they'd tell us the way to Heaven?"

Tim. "I ain't ever going to Church again!"

Rob. "Me either!...So how do you get to Heaven?"

Tim. "Dunno?"

Rob. "Maybe you can't?"

Tim. "Or...Maybe no-one really knows how to?"

Rob. "Yeah...But I did hope we were going to find out...?"

Tim. "Me too!...Oh well...let's go home then?"

Rob. "Yeah!"

(They walk away).

Nar. "People are not saved by scaring them out of going to Hell...They are saved by the love and grace of God...The unsaved don't need to be told they're going to Hell...They already know that...that's why they put their head in a Church door...What they're searching for is Hope...Something that shows them there is more to existence than birth...a lifetime...then death...with nothing beyond that.

In Second Corinthians 5:19 we are told...'God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses onto them, and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.'...He placed it in our hands to share with those who haven't heard...We have what the world is hungering for...But if we don't share it...they will never hear it...and they will never know about it until it is too late.

We can't save anyone...we are only asked to sow Gospel seed...because only God can bring that seed to life...But if we don't sow any seed, He won't have anything to work with...So, It is important that we go and tell...and give God a chance to be God for others...the way He has proved Himself to be God for us."

Pastor Shepherd

Man

Woman

Chairs x 3 or similar

(Pastor is sitting in a chair reading, when there is a knock at the door).

Pas. (Opens door). "Hello, come on in."

Man. "Thank you."

Pas. "Have a chair...I've seen you at Church lately."

Wom. "Yes, we've been coming for a few weeks now."

Pas. "That's great...I'm pleased to hear that."

Man. "Yes, it's been good."

Pas. "So...to what do I owe the pleasure of this visit?"

(Man and Woman look at each other).

Man. "You were talking about giving your blessing on couples last Sunday?"

Pas. "Yes!"

Wom. "We would like your blessing on us."

Pas. "Wonderful...I'd be pleased to do that...How long have you been married?"

Man. "Married?...No, we're not married...We live together as partners."

Pas. "Partners?"

Wom. "Yes...as Husband and Wife."

Pas. "Oh, yes I see...You live together as a Husband and Wife would."

Wom. "Yes."

Pas. "As in fornicating?"

Man. "I wouldn't put it like that."

Pas. "God does."

Wom. "That's insulting!"

Man. "Everyone else is doing it...So, it's acceptable these days."

Pas. "Everyone else smokes...Do you?"

Wom. "No."

Pas. "Why not?"

Man. "Because we don't want to."

Pas. "That suggests to me that you don't do things because everyone else does...You do them because you want to...Or don't want to?"

Wom. "This isn't what we came here to talk about!"

Man. "No, we didn't come here to be lectured to."

Pas. "The Bible tells us two people in bed together who aren't married, are fornicating...and fornicators won't enter the Kingdom of God."

Man. "So, you're telling us we aren't Christians...We're fornicators?"

Pas. "No, I'm not telling you anything of the sort...I'm saying you are two Christians who are doing something unscriptural. "

Man. "Reverend Wolff told us all those old verses weren't in the original Bibles...And we didn't come here to be judged by you...We came to receive your blessing..."

Pas. "I'm not judging you...Balaam said, 'Who can bless what God has cursed, or curse what God has blessed?'"

Wom. "Who's he?"

Pas. "I can't give my blessing on you if God doesn't...Or I'll be found fighting against God...And I don't want to do that, because I'm here to represent Him."

Man. "So are we."

Pas. "As Christians we represent Jesus Christ to this World...But if what we are doing is not His way of doing things, then we aren't representing Him as we should be..."

Man. "I told you, we didn't come here to be lectured to."

Pas. "And likewise, I've already told you I'm not lecturing you...I'm just quoting God's Word...What you do with it is up to you."

Wom. "We left Reverend Wolff's Church because we were told it was better here..."

Man. "Yes, we did."

Pas. "What sort of better were you expecting?...Better as in more Scriptural?...Or, better as in less Scriptural?"

Man. "Better for us somehow, we thought."

Pas. "In what way?"

Man. "I'm not really sure now."

Pas. "Don't you think 'better for you' would be somewhere that would give you a closer walk with the Lord?"

(Man and Woman look at each other)

Man. (Nodding) "Yes, I suppose so."

Wom. "Yes."

Pas. "Good."

Man. "So, do you think we should get married?"

Pas. "No...Personally, I think you should do whatever you want to do...It's your decision to make, not mine."

Wom. "So, you're not telling us to get married?"

Pas. "No, that's for you two to decide."

Wom. "And you're not kicking us out of the Church?"

Pas. "No...Of course not."

Man. "Oh, sorry...I thought if what we are doing is wrong...We'd have to leave?"

Pas. "I'm the Pastor here...but I'm not God!...The Good Shepherd looks after the Sheep...that's my part in this."

Wom. "So, what are you telling us?"

Pas. "I'm telling you what the Lord said...So you can make a properly informed choice."

Man. "Should we get married?"

Pas. "If you love each other...and you want to spend the rest of your lives together then yes...Get married...by all means...But if you don't want to spend the rest of your lives together...Then I suggest you stop wasting each other's time."

(Man and Woman look at each other, and smile).

Man. "Yes, we do love each other."

Wom. "We do."

Pas. "That's good...It's your choice then...in your time."

Man. "Thank you...It is better here than Reverend Wolff's Church."

Wom. "Much better...And I feel I'm right with God now."

Man. "Me too!"

Pas. "I'm pleased to hear that...And I'll see you both in church Sunday?"

Wom. "Yes, definitely."

Man. "And we'll make plans for our wedding..."

Wom. "Yes."

Pas. "Good...All's well that ends well then."

Man. "Yes, it is."

Wom. "It's turned out much better than we planned...Thanks to you."

(All rise).

Pas. "Thank you for coming...and come back anytime."

(All say goodbye, Man and Woman leave).

Nar. "Each person on earth is answerable to God alone...Watchman Nee said, If we tell someone they must do something, and God hasn't told them to do it, then we are out of the Will of God...Everyone on earth is given the authority to make every choice in their own lives...by the Lord Himself...and our place is to advise them of the Lord's Will...What they do with it is their choice."

End.
